

26 April 2010

Cape Town to share in World Cup Trophy fever

26 April 2010 -- The visit of the World Cup Trophy to the Cape Town City centre on 8 May will generate enthusiasm and passion for the 2010 FIFA World Cup™ which is now less than a month away.

The solid-gold trophy will be on display at the Waterfront Outlook Rooftop where members of the public will be able to see it up close, have their pictures taken and participate in wide range of activities organised by Coca-Cola, the organisers of the FIFA World Cup™ Trophy Tour.

“The 2010 FIFA World Cup™ is a once-in-a-lifetime event for all South Africans,” says Onwell Msomi, General Manager 2010 FIFA World Cup™ of Coca-Cola South Africa. “Only a limited number of people will be able to watch the games live in the stadiums. The Trophy, however, will be seen by a much larger part of the population.”

A number of Cape Town-born players are among the favourites to be in the final Bafana Bafana squad for the World Cup, including West Ham striker, Bennie McCarthy, Matthew Booth and Nasief Morris. There is no doubt that the arrival of the FIFA World Cup™ Trophy will inspire more youngsters to take the game seriously and to become part of South Africa’s soccer future..

Other top South African players who hail from the region are former Bafana legends, Andre Arendse, Mark Fish, Quinton Fortune and Shaun Bartlett.

The Executive Mayor of Cape Town, Clr Dan Plato, says: “The Trophy Tour will harness the spirit and energy we as a country need to ensure the success of this once-in-a-lifetime event.

“The City of Cape Town is ready and waiting for the 2010 FIFA World Cup,” says Mayor Plato.

The event at the Waterfront will start at 10h00 on 8 May and continue till 18h00 in the evening.

The World Cup Trophy arrives in Cape Town on the final leg of its global tour during which it travelled across the world in 225 days, and was seen and admired by millions of people in 86 countries.

Now, the solid-gold Trophy is in the Mother City to be seen and admired by local communities before it is handed over to the captain of the winning team of the 2010 FIFA Soccer World Cup™ on 11 July.

“We have kept the best for last,” says Onwell Msomi. “Together with the Trophy Coca-Cola will be providing a wide range of fun-filled activities that will appeal to young and old.

“This is an opportunity to celebrate the first World Cup tournament on African soil and prepare the mood of the people of the Cape days before the kick-off on 11 June.”

This is the first time ever that the Trophy has made an extended trip across the length and breadth of the host country. It is visiting 32 cities, towns and villages in a tour lasting a month. Through this tour Coca-Cola is ensuring that the largest possible number of South Africans can share in World Cup fever.

The Road to Cape Town started at FIFA headquarters in Zurich, Switzerland, on 21 September 2009 when the President of FIFA, Sepp Blatter and Coca-Cola Chairman and CEO, Muhtar Kent, took the first steps with the Trophy on its 134 017 kilometre journey.

Its first stop was in Cairo, Egypt, before criss-crossing Africa, touching down in more than 50 capitals on the continent. It was in Cape Town, briefly, for the World Cup Draw in December 2009 before continuing on its global journey.

On a tight schedule and with even tighter security the valuable trophy is travelling South Africa in a specially branded helicopter, followed on the road by a large support team who will run and stage the events.

In terms of FIFA rules, only Heads of State and the victorious captains and coaches may touch this valuable trophy which has been the symbol of sporting excellence since it made its first appearance at the 1974 World Cup finals.

But at the Waterfront local supporters will have an opportunity to get close to the trophy. For some lucky winners of the Coca-Cola Pashasha competition there will be a bonus chance to have their pictures taken with this iconic symbol of 2010.

“The Coca-Cola Trophy Tour will not come to Cape Town in our lifetime again. This is an opportunity to join all South Africans and claim your own special memory of the 2010 FIFA World Cup,” says Msomi.

- For more information on the South African leg of the FIFA World Cup™ Trophy Tour please visit www.cocacola.co.za/2010

Ends

For further media information, please contact:

For media enquiries:

Sammy Mohlaoli

Senior Communications Manager Coca-Cola South Africa

Tel: +27 11 644 0528

Fax: +27 11 644 0766

Mobile: +27 79 525 6934

E-mail: [smohlaoli@afr.ko.com](mailto:smohlaoli@ afr.ko.com)

The Coca-Cola Company

The Coca-Cola Company is the world’s largest beverage company, refreshing consumers with nearly 500 sparkling and still brands. Along with Coca-Cola, recognized as the world’s most valuable brand, the Company’s portfolio includes 12 other billion dollar brands, including Diet Coke, Fanta, Sprite, Coca-Cola Zero, vitaminwater, POWERADE, Minute Maid and Georgia Coffee. Globally, we are the No. 1 provider of sparkling beverages, juices and juice drinks and ready-to-drink teas and coffees. Through the world’s largest beverage distribution system, consumers in more than 200 countries enjoy the Company’s beverages at a rate of nearly 1.6 billion servings a day. With an enduring commitment to building sustainable communities, our Company is focused on initiatives that protect the environment, conserve resources and enhance the economic development of the communities where we operate. For more information about our Company, please visit our Web site at www.thecoca-colacompany.com